Copia alimentorum Δ & vires & vires animales ut fuligo suffocavit, & reddidit inopem, plane uti & librorum copia, & acquisitio varii auxilii externi ad literas interiorem digestionem haustarum literarum impedivit & confusio tenebricosumque in mente chaos extruxit. Pauca legere & multum prostolosset, multa & tumultuaria lectione. Pauca comedere & bibere & benedigerere, prostolosset assumptione multorum & pinguium & calidorum alimentorum, quae indigesta mansere & crassius perversum reddidere, solidorum & fluidorum. Simplicitas & inopia & temperantia naturae sigilla, lucidos & faciles nos reddunt, qualitas & quantitas ciborum excedens, multos labores facessit naturae, ut sorte succumbat, ut & videmus in iis qui in aulis & reliqua vitae genere alta petunt, & non raro alto ruant gravissimo lapsu desperabundi. In simplicitate & tenuitate magnus quaestus est, Deo liberalius servimus, & multis mundi deliciis, in se & sua natura non nisi unus tortuosus, carere possumus. Qui in Deum non credit & perfidus est, sensui diaboli perversus traditur, ut eum superbum reddat, & alta petere adigat, & magnus fieri in mundo stultorum cruciato crystallo, ut redire discant ad Deum vitiis & miseria emolliti, in quo primitus fuere, in quo solo pax & bona omnia realiter & abundanter reperiuntur.

Congestionis ad caput in commoda mihi semper fere sunt continua, quae effluxus ad propheriam non est vegetus ob interna debilitata, sic ad ventrem bis decumbunt humores, & facile hydropem facere possent, vel aliam lesionem ex muco.

Miseria vitae meae.

Nunc dum hoc meditor, intemperantia esse Δ & vigorem sen-tionis exceptis naturae, et naturae contraria, nimis potus esca & in aliis cupido, contra naturam admissa sint, dolor, vix me erigere possum tristitia, dum modo eadem vitia congest. ad caput, mox ad aures & varios decubitus lectorum humorem faciunt, unde a Deo in moralibus eadem adest ordinis vis & vigoris & hostitiae, quae ex ordine solum venit, destruitur. Vari in fronte, oculi luridi, inscitia & lucis illius sit testes & effectus, quo omnia si quis considerat, non possum non rubore perfundi & metu ob admissa crimina. Refici non possum nisi Deus iubet, & dat hostitiam, semper Cruce misericordiam, ne sui obliviscar. Natura n. quotiescunque lacta est, & carni obtem-perat allatenus, relabendi est occasio, & vix tutus sum a pessimis malis; ideo sapientissimi dispensat integris & lapsis crucem Deus almus, ut eos quos amat eripiat ex seculi huius plantasticis delitiis & vera dona originaria ipsis ab obitu concedat & adhuc in vita, si sua ad amissum exequuntur mandata. Pauci sunt qui libenter Deum audiunt a primis annis, plurimos corrumpit malus exterior instinctus, plurimos educationis perversitas & mores pravi recepti, pauci qui non adigendi sunt sensu doloris ad quaerendum id quod bonum est, & exhilarent, ad eos ab effectu sapiant, et Deus miserator omnia ad sua infinita gaudia per se, & per suam naturam omnibus praestantia, quae bona audiunt, lamina quasi invitos abripit, ne pereat per proprio voluntatis malignam ἐνέργειαν. Hoc facit & salvat hac ratione omnes, imo perditissimos ex omni facilis eripiet, et Diabolum ipsum destruet, ut diabolum, donec bona exhibere possit creaturis omnibus manifestissime & quibusvis respectibus. Bonum dominum habemus, cui sit laus & benedictio in secula! Semel admisso malo jam est gravior & difficilior ad bonum regressus, sed Deus est omni potens & eripiet ab omni malo animam meam! quando nunc ad idem per ambages, quod recta via tenere potuissem quam vicissime.

Guos Deus tristitia nunc eripit, qui vero ad Deum contendunt qua eos ratione debent ducere nil impetrant & semper manent abjecti & mali & horrent in sua luto, qui petunt & Deum se sinit agere, nec impetrant quod volunt et eunt quo eos mittit Deus. Diabolus, Deus potest tentare eos, qui mox ex gravi adurunt & exercitant vi majestatis omnipotentis Dei, sustentatio nos sinit habitare nobiscum & a multis malis ad extra operando, ceteris proximi eorum ut vices interne colligamus ad vitam eorum.

NOTÆ ad MAIUM & IUNIUM

Licet libris hauserimus omnia, certius tu scimus, quæ ipsa experientia in et extra nos experti sumus. Hinc opus est, ut omnia quæ legimus veritatem hoc modulo examinemus, ut, ubi veritas verè sit, & ubi falsum sub velamine verè latent, cognoscamus. Sic dici possumus nos res ipsas scire per suas causas, & quidem proximas, si non + remotas, quas scire solius Dei est, atque eas vertisse in suum & spem. Inde emergit vera uniuscujusque rei historia, quæ ipsa est, quam in omnibus quærimus, si verè volumus esse eruditi. Ita Medicis incumbit Historiam veram tenere Oeconomiæ animalis in statu sano & ægro, quæ ex sedula observatione & continua perscrutatione petenda est per singularia & particularia, ex quorum consensu & Analogia ad Universales regulas procedimus. Omnis inde fallacia est, quando quis Autores verba exscribit, & non audita experientia ipsa in aëre piscatur, quæ sit falsa falsis, modo in cerebro habeant convenientiam, licet ipsæ res cassas ideas refutent potius. Elucet inde quam necessariam sit a Deo voluntate et intellectu emendari, quo nos ipsos dignè excutere & ea quæ extra nos sunt quæramus. Et inde emersit meus ille & alius omnis labor, ut eum obtineam finem.

Observatione sedula, quod primum fuit obscurum, clarum fit, & clarius per omnes circumstantias & qualitates quæ attentius & diutius inquirimus. Si sapientiam quærimus, Salomonis placito, ut thesauros, invenimus eam, Deus & laboribus sua vendit bona. Tandem per Dei numen efficacem in nobis ita omnia fiunt lucida, ut charta non sufficiat manusque nostro. Vide Lopez vita ab Arnaldo d'Andilly edita cui in fine vitæ omnia ita lucida erant ut plena meridies.
